Judge Karen A. Overstreet
Chapter: 11
Ex parte

5 UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY COURT FOR THE
6 WESTERN DISTRICT OF WASHINGTON AT TACOMA

7 In Re:) Case No. 10-43655
8 Portfolio Investments, LLC)
9 Debtor-in-Possession.) EX PARTE MOTION TO EXTEND TIME
10)
11)

12 COMES NOW Debtor-in-Possession, Portfolio Investments, LLC ("Debtor") by and through
13 their counsel of record, Tax Attorneys, Inc, and moves this Court ex parte to extend the deadline for filing
14 schedules, statements, and other required documents to June 17, 2010.
15

16 This case was filed as an emergency case on May 6, 2010. The schedules, statements, and other
17 required documents are due on May 20, 2010. The extension is being requested because the Debtor has 18 seven real properties with several mortgages to different creditors, as well as other assets, debts, and other
19 expenses which it must properly identify. Additionally, Steven Nikolich, Manager Member of Portfolio
20 Investments, LLC, is collecting and cataloging information for his personal bankruptcy. For these
21 reasons, more time is needed to collect necessary documentation and information to ensure the schedules
22 are accurate and complete.

23 Ex parte relief is appropriate as creditors and the trustee will have sufficient time to review the 24 documents prior to the 341 hearing, assuming compliance with the requested extension. The requested
25 extension complies with Local Bankruptcy Rule 1007-1(a)(2) as the 341(a) is scheduled for June 24, 2010
